

MR. and MRS. JOHN M. KATKO

Robin Gibson is Bride In Atlanta Church Rite

Robin Marie Gibson of Syracuse became the bride of John Michael Katko, also of Syracuse, Saturday (Aug. 8, 1987) at the Atlanta Presbyterian Church decorated with arrangements of ivory and peach gladioluses. A dinner reception followed at the Brae Burn Recreation Center in Dansville.

The bride, a registered nurse, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gibson of Wayland RD 1. She attended Niagara University and graduated from Crouse Irving Memorial Hospital School of Nursing. She is employed in the hospital's pediatric department.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr.

and Mrs. Andrew Katko of Syracuse. He is an alumnus of Niagara University with a B.S. degree in political science and is a third-year student at Syracuse University, School of Law.

The Rev. Dean Bembower officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Steve Kuhn of Wayland was the vocalist and Paula Abraham of Wayland the organist.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore an ivory satin gown detailed with satin roses and styled with a sweetheart neckline, shoulder straps, off-the-shoulder Juliette sleeves tapering to Vs over the wrists and a full skirt with a scalloped bottom accented with roses. She wore a pearl headband with a side arrangement of silk flowers and pearl sprays to secure a fingertip tulle veil gathered into a pouf. She carried a bouquet of calla lilies and Sonia roses.

Jennifer Gibson of Colorado was the maid of honor for her sister and Linda Hampson of West Virginia was the matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Mary Lou and Cindy Katko of Syracuse, sisters of the bridegroom, Jeanne Miller of New York City, Janet DiPofi of Buffalo and Lori Carmen of Wayland.

Andrew Katko of Syracuse, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man. The ushers were Roy Gibson Jr. of Wayland, brother of the bride, Tom Gallagher and Wayne Holbrook of New York City, Brendon Malley of New Jersey, Bob O'Brist of Washington, D.C., and Joe Irving of Syracuse.

Marilou Shirtz of Syracuse and Lynne McIntyre of Wayland were the flower girls. The ringbearers were Jimmy Vollerio and Michael Heagerty of Syracuse.

The bridal attendants were attired in tea-length gowns designed with peach satin bodices, ivory lace bell sleeves accented with peach satin roses, and peach satin flounce skirts with ivory lace overlays. They wore babies'-breath in their hair and carried bouquets of peach daisies and carnations with Italian ruscus.

The flower girls' ivory satin dresses, trimmed with ivory lace, were fashioned with dropped waistlines accented with peach ribbon belts with bows. They wore wreaths of babies'-breath and carried baskets decorated with peach and ivory flowers.

The newlyweds reside in Syracuse following a honeymoon in the Caribbean.

Among the wedding guests were those from Massachusetts, Florida, Canada and Rochester.

Couple Say Vows in Dansville Church

Kelly Colleen Courtney and Laurence Paul Walker, both of Dansville, exchanged marriage vows and rings Saturday (June 27, 1987) at the United Methodist Church in Dansville.

The Rev. Calvin Sheasley performed a double-ring ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Barber of Dansville and the son of Larry Walker of Atlanta and Betty Walker of Dansville.

Mrs. Diane Fleischman, aunt of the bride, and Shirley Brownell were the vocalists. Mrs. Sheasley was the organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a satin gown designed with an illusion yoke bordered with an over-the-shoulder lace ruffle, a lace stand-up collar and accents of pearls and sequins. Lace ruffles adorned the satin skirt and the sheer train which cascaded from the waistline. Her lace bridal hat was detailed with a fingertip lace-trimmed veil. She carried a bouquet of pink and white flowers.

Kathryn Courtney of Dansville was the maid of honor for her sister. The bridesmaids were Dawn Stanley, Terry Wirth and Tammy Towner, sisters of the bridegroom; Tammy Bonner, Kim Stauffer, and Betty Jo Wolfanger, niece of the bridegroom.

Susie Courtney, niece of the bride, was the flower girl.

Brian Watson of Nunda was the best man. The ushers were Rory and Mike Walker, brothers of the bridegroom; Ken Barber, brother of the bride; Gary Madore, cousin of the bridegroom; Jeff Burly and Brian Johnson.

The bridesmaids were attired in lace over satin tea-length gowns in various pastel colors. They carried lace fans adorned with silk flowers and ribbon streamers.

A buffet-dinner reception was at the Powers Inn in Dansville. Music was provided by the Chicken Wire Band.

The bride is a 1987 graduate of Alfred State College. She is employed at Noyes Memorial Hospital.

MR. and MRS. L.P. WALKER

The bridegroom is a driver for Enterprise Services in Perry. The couple resides in Wayland.
